Thank you for applying for a Workers' Compensation Coverage Waiver (WCCW). Based on the information submitted, we have approved your waiver request. For a verification of the status of the waiver for your records, or any perspective employer's reference, please go to the Labor Commission website at <https://webaccess.laborcommission.utah.gov/wccoveragewaivers/wccwverify.jsp> and enter your business name and waiver number exactly as it shows above, including punctuation. The status screen can then be printed. The following individuals are included on this waiver:

Clayton Chase

Charles Chase

Daniel DeMeyer

By accepting the WCCW, your company affirms the following:

- It employs no other employees on the day on which the Commission issues the WCCW to the business entity;
- The individuals listed above personally waive their entitlement to the benefits provided by a workers' compensation insurance policy, in accordance with sections 34A-2-103 and 34A-2-104 of Utah code;
- The business entity listed above is engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession or business; and,
- As of the day on which a business entity employs an employee other than an owner, partner, or corporate officer or director, (a) the business entity's waiver is invalid; and (b) the business entity is required to provide workers' compensation coverage for that employee in accordance with Section 34A-2-201. (Please note that benefits provided by a workers' compensation policy can still be waived by an owner, partner, corporate officer or director through an endorsement to a workers' compensation insurance policy. For details, see an insurance agent or broker to find an insurance carrier that is authorized to issue a workers' compensation insurance policy in Utah.)

The WCCW expires on 11/14/2018, which is one year from the day on which it was issued. It is your responsibility to renew the waiver. The Labor Commission will not automatically renew the waiver. If the desire to receive a renewal reminder was indicated during the application process, a reminder notice will be sent to the email address on the waiver application. It is the waiver holder's responsibility to update the email address.

To renew the WCCW, the business entity shall go to the Labor Commission website at <https://webaccess.laborcommission.utah.gov/wccoveragewaivers/> and apply for a waiver renewal. Also, please submit the updated, required documentation and pay the required, non-refundable application processing fee. Please note that a new waiver number will be assigned when the waiver renewal is approved.

At any time, the Commission may investigate a business entity to determine whether it validly remains eligible for a WCCW. If the Commission determines that a business entity no longer qualifies for a waiver, the Commission may initiate the process to revoke the waiver through informal adjudicative proceedings. In addition, the Commission may take action against the business entity for failure to obtain workers' compensation coverage for an employee.
